The Syracuse Convention. The anti-Hill convention held at Syracuse yesterday endorsed Mr. CLEVELAND for the presidential nomination and selected a delegation to contest the seats in the Chicago convention of the representatives of the New York Democracy who were chosen by the Albany convention in Febru-

In other words, it resolved to do battle at Chicago with the Regulars, and by its action it will probably force a full discussion of the New York situation upon the National Democratic Convention. For at least two days -one day in the Committee on Credentials and one in the convention-the delegates at Chicago will hear nothing but New York politics talked of. Many cool-headed CLEVELAND men in the North as well as in the South advised against this course, and urged that the Syracuse convention should make a protest against the Albany convention and all of its doings and there drop that matter, but the managers of the Syracuse enterprise would not listen to this pacific counsel; they successfully insisted that with cut a contesting delegation they could not get a hearing. So the majority shaped their course for a hearing at Chicago, and their course for a hearing at Chicago, and a hearing they will get, but the Regulars will have a hearing also, and they will be rious mineral RECUEATOR able to turn the light and the tables, too, on this "anti-snap" organization at show which faction is really entitled to be recognized by the national Democratic

With amazing inconsistency the Syra cuse convention, after choosing its con sting delegation to Chicago, adopted are solution endorsing the list of elector agreed upon by "the snap convention. ey repudiate the Hma delegates and en dorse CLEVELAND for the nomination, and en confirm and approve the selection of

All this means that the factional warfare thich has raged in New York for five of onths past will be transferred t go. Perhaps it is better so. The es to the National convention wi able to inform themselves after learing arguments from both sides, and it impossible that the conclusion drawn by them that the party dd do better to seek its presidential candidate el cubere than in New York interants, however, hone to comalves somewhat to the Chicago n that they apport the nominee, whoever be, and because they have adopted the Albany list of electors have not as yet attempted to set up a rival State Democratic Committee Bint it is evident that they do not believe that they will be recognized as Regulars and that they do not hope to have their delegation scated. About all that they wish is to carry their war to Chicago and unload it on the convention.

What Will Blaine Do?

There is a growing feeling of confidence in administration circles that Mr. Harmi-tos has nothing to fear from Mr. BLAINE. When the hurrahing was first begun—that is, was first begun this last time—Mr. Haubloos's friends showed much trepidation. but they are easier now.
Secretary Elkins is quoted by the Wash-must have been a triumphant tone.

It is surplied that Mr. Pr.

It is surmised that Mr. Blaing has either already written, or promised to write very soon, a letter positively stating that even if nominated he cannot accept. If this conjecture as to his intentions be correct, it explains Mr. Elsins's happy frame of mind.

Mr. George C. Gorram, furthermore, states as his own opinion that Mr. Blains could not be nominated if he wanted to be; and that he would have failed of the monaination in 1888 had he reached out for it then instead of writing and cabling positive declinations from Florence and Fatis. Mr. Gorram does not think that the first street, for work and instruction. All Master Mascans in good standing are traternally neviced to attend by order of the Worshipful Master.

othe Editor of the Dospaten: To the Editor of the Dispatch:

Please give us space in your columns to correct a communication from West Point, Va., and published in your paper of May 14, 1892, in which your correspondent reporting the settlement of the long-contested and much-talked-of Terminal-tax question, Ao., stated that the Citates's Committee of Seven met the representatives of the railroad, Colonel A. B. Andrews, and others. We, and parts De Citizans Committee of Seven, were not present and had no notice whatever of that or any other meeting held by any of the committees.
